

Tulalip Lushootseed Family Activity

Local Areas of Interest

Longhouse Unit

Activity Overview:

This activity will have families going out and visiting different locations around Tulalip that are still important to sduhubč (Snohomish) people.

This unit will show you many things about our traditional homes, the Longhouse.

Activity Instructions

This activity will require ʔihišəd (families) to travel to ləliʔ (different) locations.

- Choices of locations are up to ʔihišəd (families) but important locations are: KMB (Kenny Moses Building), pig<sup>w</sup>ədalʔtx<sup>w</sup> (Longhouse), sʔayilalʔtx<sup>w</sup> ʔə ti hibulb (Hibulb Museum) are a few important places
- Once you choose a place, share what you or your ʔiišəd (family) knows about the location like ǰič (important) events that happen there or experiences you have had. ʔulələl'alǰ (Reminisce) on other moments in these locations.
- Afterwards, explore where you can, around the area and search for other close locations in the area that you have experiences with.
- Many of these places are open and have lots of space, so letting wiwsuʔ (kids) təlawil (run) around and explore by themselves will be an enriching experience to help them build their own memories in these places.
- While visitors cannot enter the pig<sup>w</sup>ədalʔtx<sup>w</sup> (Longhouse) without prior authorization, have your ʔiišəd (family) imagine living in this čuʔ (1) pig<sup>w</sup>ədalʔtx<sup>w</sup> (Longhouse) with all their suǰ<sup>w</sup>suǰ<sup>w</sup>aʔ/dx<sup>w</sup>sqaʔtəd (younger/older - siblings/cousins), ʔəpus (aunts), qəsiʔ (uncles). Is this pig<sup>w</sup>ədalʔtx<sup>w</sup> (Longhouse) big enough or would you need to have a pig<sup>w</sup>ədalʔtx<sup>w</sup> (Longhouse) that stretches even longer?
